STUDENTS' GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL

Vision

To foster an accountable, respectful, and harmonious educational ecosystem that upholds institutional dignity and academic excellence.

Mission

To sustain a disciplined and welcoming campus culture by providing an empathetic, transparent, and supportive framework for stakeholders to freely voice grievances and constructive suggestions.

Objectives

- Provide an accessible, formal mechanism for resolving the grievances of both current students and admission applicants.
- Cultivate a positive learning environment that actively protects student interests and well-being.
- Guarantee complete fairness and impartiality for every complaint, regardless of the student's background, gender, or identity.
- Enforce absolute confidentiality for both the complainant and the respondent throughout the entire resolution process.
- Prioritize rapid resolution timelines to ensure all student grievances are settled within established deadlines.
- Conduct regular training and awareness programs to educate students, faculty, and staff on NAAC grievance standards and accreditation impacts.
- Safeguard institutional reputation by demonstrating a consistent commitment to a safe, supportive, and respectful campus.
